GUIDELINES FOR PROTECTION OF GOOD SAMARITANS DURING ROAD TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS:

1. A bystander or Good Samaritan during a road accident may take an injured person to the nearest Government or private hospital, and the bystander or Good Samaritan should be allowed to leave immediately except after furnishing address and contact number only and nothing else. No question shall be asked to such bystander or Good Samaritan. Good Samaritan should not be forced to share his/her contact details, if he unwilling to do so, and he volunteers for the same.
2. The bystander or Good Samaritan shall not be liable for any civil and criminal proceedings.
3. A bystander or Good Samaritan, who makes a phone call to inform the police or emergency services for the person lying injured on the road, shall not be compelled to reveal his name and personal details on the phone or in person.
4. The disclosure of personal information, such as name and contact details of the Good Samaritan shall be made voluntary and optional including in the Medico Legal case (MLC) from provided by hospitals.

5. Disciplinary or departmental action shall be initiated by the concerned authority against delinquent official who coerces or intimidates a bystander or Good Samaritan for revealing his name or personal details or causes harassment on any pretext.

6. All registered Government and private hospitals must not detain bystander or Good Samaritan or demand payment for registration and admission costs, unless the Good Samaritan is a family member or relative of the injured and the injured is to be treated immediately. No delay should also be caused in treatment of brought/admitted RTA victim.

7. Guidelines shall be applicable to all categories of Government and Private Hospitals.
